

Let's Stitch

October 8, 2011

Liberty Town Arts Workshop

Let's Stitch

Entering the Liberty Town Arts Workshop building

Let's Stitch

Everyone had a chance to enter the drawing for Door Prizes!

Let's Stitch

The From the Heart table was right at the front of the building. We had about 40 new people sign up to receive the newsletter. Many people said they would just go to the website to find the newsletter.

Let's Stitch

This is all the yarn that was donated before the event.

Lot's more came during the day. One couple brought in 3 large bags full

Let's Stitch

This is the Spinners and Weavers Guild Room . They were the organizers of the event. They did a wonderful job.

Let's Stitch

The next few slides are of all the locations where knitters and crocheters could gather and work, chat and exchange ideas. There was a lot of that going on!

Let's Stitch

Let's Stitch

Let's Stitch

Let's Stitch

This was the demonstration room. About every two hours the demo changed. People were free to wander in when they discovered them.

Let's Stitch

This is the room upstairs where participants learned to knit or crochet. At some times during the day the room was so full we had to expand to another room downstairs.

Let's Stitch

These adorable bears are wearing their hats and scarves and there is a matching scarf for the child who receives the bear.

Let's Stitch

This is the table of bears in the Bear Cave. The basket of bears from the previous slide is on the right of this picture. People ended up sitting around this table also and knitting!

Let's Stitch

Pam and Sally surrounded by some of the items donated during the day. Sally kindly spent the day putting tags on all the items.

Let's Stitch

- Donations of finished items came in all during the day even as we were closing up.
- We received 245 items in addition to 78 squares that will be sewn into many blanket, or lapghans.
- There was also a half finished blanket with all needed yarn donated.